

Minister wishes good luck to the Latvian delegation in the global competition WorldSkills 2017

Published: 05.10.2017.

News 2017

WorldSkills 2017

WorldSkills

Skills Competitions

On the 4th October Kārlis Šadurskis, the Minister of Education and Science, met the Latvian delegation of the competition WorldSkills 2017 who will represent the name of this country in largest vocational skills competition of young professionals in Abu Dhabi, the United Arab Emirates from the 14th to the 19th October. The Minister wished good luck and all success to the eight best young professionals who have proven their skills in selection rounds.

The biggest global professional skills competition WorldSkills 2017 will take place in Abu Dhabi, the United Arab Emirates, from the 14th to the 19th October and more than 1300 young professionals from 77 Member States of the WorldSkills International organisation will compete there by participating in 51 skills competitions.

Meet the participants of the national team of Latvia WorldSkills 2017 and their experts in website section WorldSkills 2017» Latvian team 2017.

<https://www.viaa.gov.lv/en/article/minister-wishes-good-luck-latvian-delegation-global-competition-worldskills-2017>