

ECONOMICS FACULTY

Economics faculty, which was founded in 1992, 30th of August, until recent times of 2016 more than 20000 students graduated and took bachelor's degree diploma. The dean of the faculty is Azamat Fayzullayevich Khurramov, doctor of economical sciences, professor. Currently, there are 510 students at the faculty, containing 6 master's degree students and 2 doctorates.

There are 3 department in the faculty:

- "Economics";
- "Accounting in production";
- "Management in production";

5 directions (field):

- Economics;
- Marketing;
- Finance;
- Accounting;
- Professional education.

The following subject are taught at the faculty:

- Mathematics for economists;
- Economical mathematics;
- Basics of econometrics;
- Mathematics of finance;
- Finance;
- Theory of economics;
- Microeconomics;
- Macroeconomics;
- Statistics;
- Management;
- Marketing;
- Financial management;
- Money and banks;
- Theory of accounting;
- Taxes and taxation;
- Financial markets and investment;
- Financial analysis;
- Budget account;
- Insurance theory and practice;
- History of Uzbekistan State finance;
- National economy;
- Job organization;
- Investment;
- Financial controlling.

The teaching staff of the faculty includes more than 60 highly qualified specialists. Among them 3 professors, 14 dotsents(associate professors), 43 senior teachers.