

ALİ KUŞÇU SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY SCHOLARSHIP

Ali Kuşçu is a 15th-century Turkish astronomer, mathematician and physicist originally from Samarkand, who later settled in the Ottoman Empire. He is best known for the development of astronomical physics independent from natural philosophy, and for providing empirical evidence for the Earth's rotation in his treatise, 'Concerning the Supposed Dependence of Astronomy upon Philosophy'.

POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS

PURPOSE

Türkiye Scholarships aim to build a network of future leaders committed to strengthening cooperation among countries and mutual understanding among societies.

Ali Kuşçu Science and Technology Scholarship aspires to contribute to this objective by providing education opportunities for graduate students who wish to study master's and PhD programmes in science and technology in Turkey. This program is specifically designed for graduate students from all countries interested in designated courses.

FIELDS OF STUDY

A wide range of programmes across natural sciences and technology from physics to biotechnology, from mechanical engineering to urban planning are offered at prestigious Turkish universities.
